2008 Georgia Day Parade

Savannah, GA – February 9, 2008. Join the Georgia Historical Society on February 12, 2008, for the Georgia Day Parade, an annual tradition. Thousands of elementary school students will join dignitaries, costumed characters, and local citizens in a colorful parade through the squares of Bull Street. The parade begins at Forsyth Park at 10:30 a.m. and continues north on Bull Street, ending at City Hall with greetings from the Mayor and other dignitaries as well as Banner Competition awards presentations to the students.

The Georgia Day Parade is part of GHS's Georgia Days, a month-long commemoration of Georgia's rich history, and GHS's signature educational event of the year. The Georgia Day Parade is free and open to the public. For more information visit www.georgiahistory.com and follow the Georgia Days links.
