Super Museum Sunday Offers Free Access to Area Museums and Historic Sites

Savannah, GA - January 30, 2009. The Georgia Historical Society (GHS) in conjunction with area museums and historic sites, invites everyone to participate in and enjoy Super Museum Sunday on February 8, 2009, from 12:00 noon until 4:00 p.m.

Don't miss this once-a-year event, as historic house museums, art museums, and other cultural organizations in Georgia's First City open their doors to the public at no charge during this annual Georgia Historical Society's Georgia Days event.

Super Museum Sunday is part of GHS's Georgia Days, a month-long commemoration of Georgia's rich history, and GHS's signature educational event of the year. Super Museum Sunday is free and open to the public. For more information visit www.georgiahistory.com and follow the Georgia Days links.

Maps and participant listings will be available on the Georgia Historical Society's website, and through the Savannah Morning News, Savannah Tribune, and Connect Savannah.

The Georgia Historical Society, headquartered in Savannah, is the oldest cultural institution in the state and one of the oldest historical organizations in the nation. It is the first and only statewide historical society in Georgia. For nearly 170 years, GHS has collected, preserved, and shared Georgia history through a variety of educational outreach programs, publications, and research services.
