GHS's Annual Book Sale

Savannah, GA, April 1, 2009—Thousands of gently used books at discounted prices will be offered for sale at the Georgia Historical Society's Annual Book Sale will be held on April 24-25, 2009. Join us for this popular annual event that raises funds for the Georgia Historical Society's library and archives. Proceeds from the book sales are used to purchase new library materials, fund library programs, and to care for the oldest collection of material related to Georgia history.

This sale of donated books will include a wide range of titles covering history, biography, fiction, and much more! A special preview and purchase hour for members of the Georgia Historical Society kicks off the Sale on April 24, from 9 - 10 a.m. The public sale will be held from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. on April 24 and 25. This is a great opportunity to stock up on books for all ages and interests at bargain prices.

Book donations for the book sale will be accepted through Friday, April 17th. Donations can include rare and non-rare: fiction, poetry, children's, and all non-fiction subjects including history, biography, current events, how-to, religion, business, self-help, cooking, gardening, etc.

Magazines/journals, outdated and obsolete audio/video/software, and games will not be accepted for use in the Book Sale.

Donations are tax deductible.

The Georgia Historical Society, headquartered in Savannah, is the oldest cultural institution in the state and one of the oldest historical organizations in the nation. It is the first and only statewide historical society in Georgia. For nearly 175 years, GHS has collected, preserved, and shared Georgia history through a variety of educational outreach programs, publications, and research services.
